

Charmouth Dragon River Festival

Saturday 27th May

Exhibition: St. Andrew's Hall, Charmouth 12-5pm

Will you join us?

Our River Char is dirty – a sign at the river mouth even warns us not to bathe there. But we are working to change all that... to help our river to be sparkling clean again.

In celebration of what has been achieved so far, there will be a

Charmouth Dragon River Festival on 27th May, 2023

(we're planning a parade, competitions, storytelling, arts, crafts, dragon cakes and more)

Please take a stall at the exhibition!

- Bring or send posters, leaflets and other information to be displayed on a 2x1m. tabletop or display panel. (Set-up is from 6-8pm on Friday 26th or from 9-10.30am on Saturday 27th. We can set-up for you and keep an eye on your stall if you're not attending.)
- Can you display our festival publicity or publicise it to your mailing list?
- Do join the dragon parade on Sat 27th (11am-12 noon) – family members welcome.
- Stalls are free, but we ask for a donation towards our costs from organisations that have funds available.
